Graham said festival preparations will begin Wednesday, Oct. 14, with vendors allowed to start setting up Thursday, Oct. 15. Setup on Oct. 16 begins at 7 a.m., and vehicles must be removed from the festival area by 10 a.m., an hour before opening.

Organizers and public safety representatives are coordinating traffic control, volunteer assignments and emergency access. Barricades, cones and pylons will be used for necessary street closures and walking paths, with access for emergency vehicles included in the planning.

by Gabe Stark
Contributor

Trenton scored three runs in the fifth inning and held off a late Gallatin rally to earn a 4-3 road softball win Monday, Oct. 5.

The teams each scored once in the first inning before three scoreless innings kept the game tied. Trenton broke the tie in the fifth, taking a 4-1 lead. Gallatin answered with two runs in the sixth, but the Bulldogs kept the home team scoreless in the seventh to secure the victory.

Emma Welch pitched a complete game for Trenton, allowing four hits and three earned runs over seven innings. Welch struck out six, walked one and threw 64 strikes in 96 pitches.

Makayla Mejia led the Bulldogs at the plate, going 3-for-4 with an RBI and a stolen base. Welch and Lillian Ortega each doubled, drove in a run and scored once. Kimberly Clark tripled and scored a run, while Betsy Price added a hit, an RBI and a sacrifice.

Claire Woodard and Morgan Smith each contributed a hit, with Smith also scoring. Sydney Blackburn walked and stole two bases.

Trenton finished with nine hits and two walks, leaving seven runners on base. The Bulldogs committed three errors, while Gallatin played an error-free game and stranded three runners.

The Bulldogs took on the La Plata

Invitational this past week on Oct. 3, coming home as back-to-back tournament champions.

The team was 10-10 on the season before playing North Harrison on Tuesday, Oct. 6. As of press time, results were unavailable.

The team takes on Putnam County on Thursday, Oct. 8 and Chillicothe on Monday, Oct. 12.

Smith Brings Trenton's Perspective to National FCCLA Team

Gabe Stark
Reporter

As Rebecca Smith helps more Trenton students find their place in FCCLA, she is taking on a new role that will allow her to help shape the experience for students nationwide.

The Trenton High School adviser has been selected for a two-year term on the national Family, Career and Community Leaders of America's Competitive Events Advisory Team. Her appointment comes as the local chapter's membership has grown from 26 students last school year to 144 this year.

Smith said she is the team's only Missouri representative. One chapter adviser is selected nationally each year to serve a two-year term.

For Smith, the opportunity means bringing the experiences of a growing Trenton chapter into conversations about how FCCLA competitions can better serve students.

"My only motivation for joining was to want to improve the competitive event experience for kids, for the students, not just Trenton students, but on a national level," she said.

Smith was selected after submitting an application and completing a Zoom interview with national competitive events staff. She said she was excited to earn the position on her first application.

The team helps review and update competition guidelines, scoring rubrics and policies. Its members can recommend new events and assist with national competitions. Through monthly meetings, Smith will offer feedback on ways to keep events relevant to family and consumer sciences education and meaningful for the students participating.

She said she wants students to have a variety of opportunities, with competitions that are fair, interesting and rewarding.

That goal is also guiding her work in Trenton, where the chapter has made membership more accessible this school year. Instead of charging students dues, members are fundraising to cover affiliation fees. The chapter-affiliated students enrolled in family and consumer sciences classes so they can participate in competitions and other activities if they choose.

Returning members have encouraged classmates to give FCCLA a try, and Smith said the response has been positive. Even before the chapter's main kickoff for STAR Events, the number of students signed up to compete had matched last year's total. Registration is not due until December.

The chapter's recent national success has helped generate that interest. Its current president, Anthony Esquivel, placed second nationally in Repurpose and Redesign last summer. Smith said he has become a mentor for younger members and students who have never prepared a competitive project.

Seeing a fellow Trenton student succeed has helped others recognize the opportunities available through the chapter, she said.

Smith remains the chapter's sole adviser as membership grows. This year, the group is concentrating on its own members and activities, with plans to compete in STAR

Events and two state-level competitions. The first competition is planned for the Fall Leadership Conference in early November.

Smith hopes to see multiple teams qualify for the national conference in San Antonio, Texas, in June. The chapter also wants to become more involved in the community and build partnerships with local businesses and organizations to help support students' participation at nationals.

A baked goods fundraiser is planned for October to help pay affiliation fees. The date had not been finalized at the time of the interview. Community members interested in supporting the chapter can contact Smith via email at rsmith@trentonr9.k12.mo.us.

"We always want to let the community know about all of the opportunities and exciting work that we're doing in our chapter," Smith said.

our faculty, staff and students, and we are proud to continue building an institution where students can thrive, succeed, and prepare for their futures," NCMC President Jamie Hooyman said.

Enrollment increased 9% at the Savannah campus, 17% in dual enrollment and early college programs, and 11% in dual credit programs. The college also reported a 22% increase in enrollment from its service area and an 11% increase in returning students.

"The Trenton campus and online programs continue to have success, with momentous growth occurring at our Savannah campus and in our dual credit and dual enrollment programs in particular. The outreach and effort put forth to provide a quality education in these areas have allowed us to continue to have a positive impact throughout north Missouri," Kristen Alley, vice president of student affairs, said.

Local Veterinarian marks nearly 2 decades of leadership in Equine Dental Program

Bruce Whittle of Trenton recently continued a nearly two-decade commitment to veterinary education as an instructor for the Missouri Veterinary Medical Association's Fall Equine Dentistry Lecture and Wet Lab, held Sept. 25-27 at the Humane Society of Missouri's Longmeadow Rescue Ranch in Union.

Whittle, chair of the MVMA Equine Committee, originated the idea for the association's Equine Dental Weekend and led the effort to establish the program in 2008.

Since its inception, MVMA has held 15 Equine Dental Weekends, bringing veterinarians together for education, hands-on training and service to horses in need. Whittle has remained a driving force behind the program and its continued success.

"This year's program offered veterinarians 18.5 hours of state licensing board-approved continuing education covering oral cavity anatomy and physiology; dental instruments and techniques; sedation techniques; dental pathology and treatment; and a hands-on dental wet lab. Whittle instructed alongside Dennis Rach of Moore and Co. Veterinary Services in Calgary, Canada," reads a release about the program.

The program also provides a direct benefit to horses in need. During the hands-on portion of this year's seminar, participating veterinarians provided dental treatment at no charge to 38 horses awaiting adoption at Longmeadow Rescue Ranch, representing an estimated $7,600 in veterinary services.

Whittle is a predominantly large animal veterinarian and co-owner of a mixed animal veterinary practice in Trenton with his wife, Gayla. His interest in equine dentistry extends well beyond Missouri. For more than a decade, he has been involved in teaching dentistry short courses at veterinary colleges through the American Association of Equine Practitioners.

"Through his leadership of the MVMA Equine Committee, Whittle has helped maintain the dental program as an important continuing education opportunity for Missouri veterinarians while also providing needed veterinary care to horses at the rescue ranch," reads the release.

genuine enthusiasm for learning. Wilson has a remarkable ability to simplify complex pathophysiology concepts, transforming them into visual aids and explanations that make challenging material accessible and understandable.

Her commitment to student success is reflected in her leadership as PN Program Coordinator in Savannah. Wilson has played a key role in strengthening the nursing curriculum and implementing innovative instructional strategies. North Central Missouri College nursing students Abbie Foster and Ellie Neblock recently volunteered at the Grundy County Food Pantry, helping serve individuals and families in the local community.

The experience gave Foster and Neblock a chance to contribute to the community while also recognizing the important connection between health and access to basic resources such as nutritious food.

Hollie Hild, NCMC Nursing Instructor and Clinical Coordinator, said, "Community involvement is an important part of nursing education at North Central Missouri College. Experiences such as volunteering at the food pantry allow students to see firsthand how community resources support health and well-being beyond the traditional healthcare setting."

Foster and Neblock represented NCMC and the nursing program through their willingness to serve, work alongside community members, and support an organization that provides an important resource to residents of Grundy County.

Local SAR members pay homage to Honor Flight veterans

On Sept. 29, history came alive at the Kansas City airport. Nineteen members of the Missouri and Kansas Society Sons of the American Revolution Color Guard deployed in full Continental and militia uniforms to welcome home local veterans from the 22nd Honor Flight Network of Kansas City trip to Washington, D.C.

The honor flight includes a day touring the World War II, Korean War, and Vietnam War memorials—and witnessing the changing of the guard at Arlington National Cemetery.

As the veterans filed into the terminal, Guardsmen stood a formal honor line with the Colors to shake hands and offer sincere gratitude. The group shared in a press release, "A truly special shoutout goes to the oldest hero on the flight, 95-year-old PFC Robert "Gene" Jones, a proud veteran of the Korean War."

There were 14 Missouri S.A.R. guardsmen representing five chapters including the William C. Corum chapter from Liberty, plus five Kansas S.A.R. guardsmen, representing four chapters. Three Missouri S.A.R. Auxiliary ladies were also on hand in beautiful period attire.

Healthy habits may help women reduce breast cancer risk

METRO CREATIVE

A physically active lifestyle can help women reduce their risk for breast cancer.

Cancer is a formidable disease that the World Health Organization reports is the leading cause of death worldwide. Figures vary, but organizations such as the WHO and the American Cancer Society estimate that around 9.5 million people die from cancer every year.

No type of cancer causes more deaths in women across the globe than breast cancer. Though the five-year survival rate for breast cancer patients has increased by a significant margin in recent decades, a 2019 study published in The Asian Pacific Journal of Cancer Prevention reported a significant increase in breast cancer mortality rate in the 25-year period preceding the study. The researchers behind the study theorized that the spike in mortality rate could be due to an increase in incidence and prevalence of breast cancer.

Like all cancers, breast cancer cannot be prevented. However, various healthy habits could help women reduce their risk for the disease.

- Avoid alcohol. The ACS reports that alcohol consumption is a clear risk factor for breast cancer. Risk increases with the amount of alcohol a woman consumes. For example, a woman who consumes one alcoholic drink per day has a 7 to 10 percent higher risk of getting breast cancer than a woman who abstains from alcohol. Drinking two to three drinks per day could increase risk by around 20 percent.
- Establish and maintain a healthy weight. Being overweight or obese increases breast cancer risk, particularly among postmenopausal women. According to the ACS, after menopause women get most of their estrogen from fat tissue. Fat tissue increases estrogen levels in the body, which in turn increases a woman's risk for breast cancer. Elevated levels of insulin in the body, which is common among individuals who are overweight, also has been linked to higher breast cancer risk. Establishing and maintaining a healthy weight cannot prevent breast cancer, but it can help women reduce their risk for the disease.

- Maintain a physically active lifestyle. A sedentary lifestyle increases a person's risk for various conditions and diseases. Women who live such a lifestyle are at elevated risk for breast cancer. The ACS notes that sedentary behavior such as sitting, lying down, watching television, or engaging with screen-based forms of entertainment that do not require physical activity can increase breast cancer risk, especially for women who spend most of their work day sitting down. A more physically active lifestyle that includes routine exercise can help women reduce their breast cancer risk.
- Adopt a nutritious diet. Eating right is another way for women to reduce their breast cancer risk. Vegetables, fiber-rich legumes such as beans and peas, fruits across the color spectrum, and whole grains are some components of a healthy, nutrient-rich diet that can help lower breast cancer risk. Women also can avoid certain foods, such as red and processed meats and refined grains, to lower their breast cancer risk.

OPINION

Free press, journalists needed to document changes

Benjy Hamm

When the Declaration of Independence was signed 250 years ago, newspapers throughout the colonies shared the life-changing news with their readers.

With all of the enormous changes in this country and media since 1776, it's noteworthy that more than 5,000 newspapers are still informing their communities about what their leaders are doing and how those actions affect them.

Often, newspaper reporters are the only journalists who cover the actions of the local school board or city council or youth sports teams. The 2025 State of Local News report by Northwestern University's Medill School of Journalism revealed that there are more than 1,500 counties in the United States served by only one news media outlet. In almost all of those counties, the news source is a local newspaper.

It used to be hard to imagine how different communities would be without local news sources. But in recent years, the changing business models for news organizations have led to an increasing number of so-called news deserts – places where residents don't have access to independent coverage of their communities.

Research shows that the lack of news coverage can lead to a number of problems: fewer people voting, more corruption, higher costs of government and a reduced connection among residents.

One of this country's most famous founders, Thomas Jefferson, wrote, "Were it left to me to decide whether we should have a government without newspapers, or newspapers without a government, I should not hesitate a moment to prefer the latter."

That doesn't mean Jefferson always liked what newspapers wrote about him, his decisions or his policies. He often disagreed vehemently. But he and other founders inherently understood the importance of having a government watchdog and independent voices that are free to challenge policies and leaders, with the goals of better informing residents about the world around them and improving society.

The founders understood this nation needed guarantees to protect vigorous discussions and disagreements, particularly about the government. So, they created the Bill of Rights in 1791, starting with the First Amendment that ensures free speech and a free press.

Sustaining a free press isn't free, nor is it easy. The type of news coverage that helps to change laws and change lives – including exposing problems and wrongdoing in communities that some would prefer to keep hidden – can be difficult, time-consuming and expensive.

It was true 250 years ago, and it's still true today.

Some critics have been predicting the death of newspapers since at least the invention of radio, and those predictions have increased with the creation of television, the internet and social media. Yet, newspapers have persevered, adapted their business models and remained as essential institutions in their communities.

In this time of another upheaval of the media business model, newspapers are yet again adapting for the future. Their news is shared not just in print as it was in 1776, but also to millions of readers online and through social media by the news organizations themselves and countless other people.

Surveys that cite how many Americans receive news from their "phones" these days don't consider where those phones get their news and information. Many readers don't know the origin either. But much of the commentary and sharing of news that is abundant online and in social media can be traced back to the original sources: journalists.

As we celebrate National Newspaper Week during Oct. 4-10, it's important to reflect on why the founders believed so strongly in the need for a free press to cover this nation without government control, without fear or favor and without undue influence from powerful people.

The value of a free press is not simply to protect the press, but to protect democracy. It's based on the belief that a better-informed citizenry is essential for the United States to not only survive, but to thrive.

In today's crowded media market, where misinformation and disinformation are abundant, it's crucial that newspapers continue to serve in their role as watchdogs and as trusted sources to inform, inspire, educate and connect the communities they serve.

There's no way to predict how the United States will change and evolve over the next 250 years. But it's certain we will continue to need a free press and independent journalists to document those changes and provide the important news coverage that is vital for this nation's future.

Benjy Hamm is director of the national Institute for Rural Journalism and Community Issues and an associate professor at the University of Kentucky's School of Journalism and Media. He previously served as editorial director for Landmark Community Newspapers and as an editor at The Virginian-Pilot, The Associated Press and the New York Times Regional Newspaper Group.

Celebrate National Newspaper Week

Celebrating Value, Talent Across Missouri

Vivek Malek
Missouri State Treasurer

Every October, National Disability Employment Awareness Month gives us an opportunity to recognize the contributions Americans with disabilities make in our workplaces and communities. This year, that recognition carries additional meaning as our nation celebrates its 250th birthday.

The 2026 theme, "Celebrating Value and Talent," reminds us that Americans with disabilities have been part of our nation's story from the beginning. For generations, they have worked, created businesses, served their communities and helped build the country we know today.

That legacy continues across Missouri. Our state is stronger when every Missourian has the opportunity to use his or her talents, pursue meaningful work and build greater financial independence. Employers also benefit when they recognize the abilities and perspectives that people with disabilities bring to the workplace.

As state treasurer, one way I am proud to support this goal is through MO ABLE. Established in 2017, the program provides eligible Missourians with disabilities a way to save and invest money while maintaining access to important means-tested benefits such as Supplemental Security Income and Medicaid.

MO ABLE recently marked a record year. In 2025, the program added nearly 1,400 active accounts and more than $15 million in assets, making it the strongest year in the program's history. These numbers represent more Missourians with disabilities and their families saving, investing and planning for the future.

MO ABLE funds can be used for qualified disability expenses ranging from education and housing to transportation, health care and assistive technology. This flexibility can help individuals and families pursue greater financial security and independence.

National Disability Employment Awareness Month reminds us that opportunity extends beyond simply getting a job. It means giving people the chance to develop their abilities, contribute to their communities and pursue their own goals.

As America marks 250 years, we have an opportunity to recognize all those who have contributed to our nation's success and those who will shape its future. This October, I encourage Missourians to join me in celebrating the value, talent and contributions of people with disabilities across our state.

For more information about the MO ABLE program, visit moable.com or call (800) 439-1653 during weekday hours.

Crowder State Park Hosts Women in Nature

Crowder State Park in Trenton celebrated its fourth year of the annual Women in Nature event this past weekend.

Dozens of women took part in the outdoor fun Friday through Sunday, Oct. 2 to 4, that included camping, crafts, historical lessons, outdoor cooking and edible plants in nature lessons, camp fires, hiking, demonstrations, an astronomy program, trivia and more.

Proposed Amendments to the Constitution of Missouri and Statutory Proposition

To be submitted to the qualified voters of the State of Missouri at the General Election to be held on Tuesday, the 3rd day of November, 2026.

CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT NO. 3

[Proposed by 103rd General Assembly (First Regular Session) HCS HJR 73]

OFFICIAL BALLOT TITLE:

Shall the Missouri Constitution be amended to:

- Repeal the 2024 voter-approved Amendment providing reproductive healthcare rights, including abortion through fetal viability;
- Allow abortions for rape and incest (under twelve-weeks' gestation), emergencies, and fetal anomalies;
- Allow legislation regulating abortion;
- Ensure parental consent for minors' abortions;
- Prohibit gender transition procedures for minors?

State governmental entities estimate no costs or savings. Greene County estimates it may experience an unknown increase in tax revenue. Other local governmental entities estimate no costs or savings.

Be it resolved by the House of Representatives, the Senate concurring therein:

That at the next general election to be held in the state of Missouri, on Tuesday next following the first Monday in November, 2026, or at a special election to be called by the governor for that purpose, there is hereby submitted to the qualified voters of this state, for adoption or rejection, the following amendment to Article I of the Constitution of the state of Missouri:

Section A. Section 36, Article I, Constitution of Missouri, is repealed and one new section adopted in lieu thereof, to be known as Section 36(a), to read as follows:

Section 36(a). 1. The state's duty to protect public health and welfare includes protecting the integrity and ethics of the medical profession. The state's interest in regulating the practice of medicine is even greater in areas of medical and scientific uncertainty or in areas that raise grave moral and ethical concerns, including abortion and gender transition procedures.

2. An abortion may be performed or induced upon a woman in cases of medical emergency, fetal anomaly, rape, or incest. In the case of abortions performed or induced in cases of rape or incest, the abortion may be performed or induced no later than twelve weeks gestational age of the unborn child.

3. The general assembly may enact laws that regulate the provision of abortions, abortion facilities, and abortion providers to ensure the health and safety of the pregnant mother. These laws shall include, but not be limited to, laws requiring physicians providing abortion care to have admitting privileges at a nearby hospital; laws requiring facilities where abortions are performed or induced to be licensed and inspected for clean and safe conditions and adequate instruments to treat any emergencies arising from an abortion procedure; laws requiring physicians to perform a sufficient examination of the woman to determine the unborn child's gestational age and any preexisting medical conditions that may influence the procedure; and laws requiring ultrasounds to be performed only by physicians or licensed medical technicians.

4. No abortion shall be performed or induced upon a woman based on a prenatal diagnosis, test, or screening indicating a disability in an unborn child, except in cases of a fetal anomaly.

5. No public funds shall be expended for the purpose of performing, inducing, or otherwise assisting any abortion, except in cases of medical emergency, rape, or incest, as otherwise authorized by law.

6. Except in cases of a medical emergency in which consent cannot be obtained, no abortion shall be performed or induced upon a woman without her voluntary and informed consent, given freely and without coercion. In the case of a minor under the age of eighteen years who is not emancipated, no person shall knowingly perform or induce an abortion, except in cases of a medical emergency in which consent cannot be obtained, unless the attending physician has obtained: (1) the written consent of the minor and a parent or legal guardian; and (2) documentation of the consent is retained in the minor's medical record. Licensed medical physicians shall be required to provide women with medically accurate information. The general assembly may enact laws to provide for the right of a minor to consent to an abortion as granted by a court order.

7. Fetal organ harvesting after an abortion is not permitted under any circumstances.

8. A woman's ability to access health care in cases of miscarriages, ectopic pregnancies, and other medical emergencies shall not be infringed by the state.

9. No gender transition surgeries shall be knowingly performed on children under eighteen years of age, and no cross-sex hormones or puberty-blocking drugs shall be knowingly prescribed or administered for the purpose of gender transition to children under eighteen years of age. The provisions of this section shall not apply to the use of such surgeries, drugs, or hormones to treat children born with a medically verifiable disorder of sex development or to treat any infection, injury, disease, or disorder unrelated to the purpose of a gender transition.

10. Any action challenging the validity of any state law relating to reproductive health care shall be brought in the Circuit Court of Cole County, Missouri. If a pleading, written motion, or other paper drawing into question the constitutionality of a state statute does not include the state, one of its agencies, or one of its officers or employees in an official capacity, the party bringing the action shall file a notice of constitutional question and serve it on the attorney general and the attorney general shall have the right to intervene in the litigation.

11. The general assembly shall have the authority to enact laws to carry out the provisions of this section.

12. As used in this section, the following terms mean:

(1) "Cross-sex hormones", testosterone, estrogen, or other androgens given to an individual in amounts that are greater or more potent than would normally occur naturally in a healthy individual of the same age and sex;

(2) "Fetal anomaly", a structural or functional abnormality in the unborn child's gestational development that would make life outside the womb impossible;

(3) "Fetal organ harvesting", collection of fetal tissue, organs, or fluids, including any biological material, for the purpose of selling or collecting for scientific purposes, but shall not include the utilization of fetal tissue, organs, or fluids to determine the cause or causes of any anomaly, illness, death, or genetic condition of the unborn child, the paternity of the unborn child, or for law enforcement purposes;

(4) "Gender transition surgery", a surgical procedure performed for the purpose of assisting an individual with identifying with and living as a gender different from his or her biological sex;

(5) "Medical emergency", a condition that, based on reasonable medical judgment, so complicates the medical condition of a pregnant woman as to necessitate the immediate termination of her pregnancy to avert the death of the pregnant woman or for which a delay will create a serious risk of substantial and irreversible physical impairment of a major bodily function of the pregnant woman. A medical emergency shall include, but not be limited to, an ectopic pregnancy at any point following the diagnosis of such and treatment for a miscarriage;

(6) "Puberty-blocking drugs", gonadotropin-releasing hormone analogues or other synthetic drugs used to stop luteinizing hormone secretion and follicle stimulating hormone secretion, synthetic antiandrogen drugs to block the androgen receptor, or any other drug used to delay or suppress pubertal development in children for the purpose of assisting an individual with a gender transition;

(7) "Reasonable medical judgment", a medical judgment that would be made by a reasonably prudent physician, knowledgeable about the case and the treatment possibilities with respect to the medical conditions involved.

13. All provisions of this section are severable. If any provision of this section is found by a court of competent jurisdiction to be unconstitutional or unconstitutionally enacted, the remaining provisions of this section shall be and remain valid.

[Section 36. 1 This Section shall be known as "The Right to Reproductive Freedom Initiative".

— 2. The Government shall not deny or infringe upon a person's fundamental right to reproductive freedom, which is the right to make and carry out decisions about all matters relating to reproductive health care, including but not limited to prenatal care, childbirth, postpartum care, birth control, abortion care, miscarriage care, and respectful birthing conditions.

— 3. The right to reproductive freedom shall not be denied, interfered with, delayed, or otherwise restricted unless the Government demonstrates that such action is justified by a compelling governmental interest achieved by the least restrictive means. Any denial, interference, delay, or restriction of the right to reproductive freedom shall be presumed invalid. For purposes of this Section, a governmental interest is compelling only if it is for the limited purpose and has the limited effect of improving or maintaining the health of a person seeking care, is consistent with widely accepted clinical standards of practice and evidence-based medicine, and does not infringe on that person's autonomous decision-making.

— 4. Notwithstanding subsection 3 of this Section, the general assembly may enact laws that regulate the provision of abortion after Fetal Viability provided that under no circumstance shall the Government deny, interfere with, delay, or otherwise restrict an abortion that in the good faith judgment of a treating health care professional is needed to protect the life or physical or mental health of the pregnant person.

— 5. No person shall be penalized, prosecuted, or otherwise subjected to adverse action based on their actual, potential, perceived, or alleged pregnancy outcomes, including but not limited to miscarriage, stillbirth, or abortion. Nor shall any person assisting a person in exercising their right to reproductive freedom with that person's consent be penalized, prosecuted, or otherwise subjected to adverse action for doing so.

— 6. The Government shall not discriminate against persons providing or obtaining reproductive health care or assisting another person in doing so.

— 7. If any provision of this Section or the application thereof to anyone or to any circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of those provisions and the application of such provisions to others or other circumstances shall not be affected thereby.

— 8. For purposes of this Section, the following terms mean:

— (1) "Fetal Viability", the point in pregnancy when, in the good faith judgment of a treating health care professional and based on the particular facts of the case, there is a significant likelihood of the fetus's sustained survival outside the uterus without the application of extraordinary medical measures.

— (2) "Government":

— a. the state of Missouri; or

— b. any municipality, city, town, village, township, district, authority, public subdivision or public corporation having the power to tax or regulate, or any portion of two or more such entities within the state of Missouri.]

Section B. Pursuant to chapter 116, and other applicable constitutional provisions and laws of this state allowing the general assembly to adopt ballot language for the submission of this joint resolution to the voters of this state, the official summary statement of this resolution shall be as follows:

"Shall the Missouri Constitution be amended to:

- Guarantee access to care for medical emergencies, ectopic pregnancies, and miscarriages;

- Ensure women's safety during abortions;
- Ensure parental consent for minors;
- Allow abortions for medical emergencies, fetal anomalies, rape, and incest;
- Require physicians to provide medically accurate information; and
- Protect children from gender transition?"

EXPLANATION—Matter enclosed in bold-faced brackets [this] in the above bill is not enacted and is intended to be omitted from the law. Matter in bold-face type in the above bill is proposed language.

CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT NO. 6

[Proposed by Initiative Petition]

OFFICIAL BALLOT TITLE:

Shall the Missouri Constitution be amended to:

- expand the initiative and referendum petition process by making it a fundamental right;
- allow courts to revise ballot summaries through lawsuits;
- prohibit the legislature from weakening initiative or referendum powers;
- prohibit the legislature from changing or repealing laws enacted through the initiative process, or passing laws similar to those rejected by referendum, without approval from at least 80% of both chambers; and
- preserve existing majority vote and signature requirements for initiative and referendum petitions?

State and local governmental entities estimate no costs or savings.

Be it resolved by the people of the state of Missouri that the Constitution be amended:

Article III of the Constitution is revised by adding six new sections to be known as Article III, Sections 54, 55, 56, 57, 58, and 59 to read as follows:

Section 54. Ballot summaries, including summary statements and fiscal note summaries, shall be clear, unbiased, fair, accurate, and easy to understand. Ballot summaries shall not seek to mislead voters. No current or future law passed by the legislature shall prevent the circuit court or appellate courts, including the supreme court, from immediately adjudicating and rewriting ballot summaries in whole or in part.

Section 55.

1. The legislature shall be prohibited from weakening citizens' initiative or referendum powers; no law passed by the legislature and no legislatively-referred law or constitutional amendment shall weaken citizens' initiative or referendum powers, not withstanding Sections 2(a) and 2(b) of Article XII of this Constitution, Section 1 of Article III of this Constitution, and any other provision or law or of this Constitution to the contrary. The phrase "weaken citizens initiative or referendum powers" shall be construed broadly, examples thereof including, but not being limited to, raising signature thresholds; shortening the time allowed for signature collection; narrowing allowable subject matter; imposing additional requirements on petitioners; preventing or delaying judicial revision of misleading ballot titles; prohibiting or nullifying severability clauses in initiated measures; rendering a simple statewide majority of votes cast on the measure insufficient to enact a law or constitutional amendment proposed by citizen initiative, or otherwise impeding or restricting citizens' powers of initiative or referendum. Any law or constitutional amendment that weakens citizens' direct lawmaking power, which is or has been proposed by the legislature after January 1, 2025, is hereby prohibited.

2. The rights of initiative and referendum as set forth in this Constitution are fundamental rights. Any registered voter or the state of Missouri has a right to propose laws and constitutional amendments by initiative petition and to propose the rejection or acts by the legislature by referendum petition, to sign such petitions, to circulate such petitions, and to vote on such petitions. However, no person shall qualify as a petition circulator who has been convicted of, found guilty of, or pled guilty to an offense involving forgery under the laws of this state or an offense under the law or any other jurisdiction if that offense would be considered forgery under the laws of this state.

3. Except as specifically set forth in this Constitution, any law affecting, governmental regulation of, or governmental action taken pertaining to, the fundamental rights of initiative and referendum as set forth in this Constitution is subject to strict scrutiny and must be narrowly tailored to achieve a compelling governmental interest.

Section 56.

1. As of the effective date of this section, the legislature shall be prohibited from changing any citizen-initiated law, changing any citizen-initiated amendment, or passing, proposing, or referring any law or constitutional amendment similar in effect to a law rejected by referendum petition, unless eighty percent of the House and Senate refer the change to a vote of the people, notwithstanding any provision of law or of this Constitution to the contrary.

2. For the purposes of this section, a "citizen-initiated law" is defined to be a law that the people have proposed and enacted by the initiative. For the purposes of this section, a "citizen-initiated amendment" is defined to be any section or article of this Constitution, or any portion thereof, that the people have proposed and enacted by the initiative as a constitutional amendment. For the purposes of this section, "changing" a citizen-initiated law or citizen-initiated amendment means passing, proposing, or referring a law or constitutional amendment which, if enacted, would modify, repeal, supersede, or undermine any part or a citizen-initiated law or citizen-initiated amendment, whether explicitly or by implication. For the purposes of this section, a law "rejected by referendum petition" is a law which has been passed by the legislature then subsequently rejected by the people by way of a referendum ordered by petition. For the purposes of this section, "unless eighty percent of the House and Senate refer the change to a vote of the people" shall mean at least eighty percent of the members of the House and at least eighty percent of the members of the Senate each separately vote to refer the proposed law or constitutional amendment to voters.

3. The prohibitions of this section shall be construed to protect laws and constitutional provisions enacted by citizen initiative after January 1, 2010, including both those enacted before and after the effective date of this section, and to protect referendum petition vetoes after January 1, 2010, including both those before and after the effective date of this section, from action by the legislature on or after the effective date of this section. "Referendum petition vetoes" shall mean when laws passed by the legislature are rejected by the citizens by referendum petition.

4. This section shall not be construed to deprive any member of the legislature of the right to introduce any bill or measure, but passage, proposal, or referral thereof by this legislature is subject to the prohibitions and requirements of this section.

Section 57. Notwithstanding any other provision of law or of this Constitution to the contrary, pre-existing signature and vote requirements shall be maintained, as follows: a simple statewide majority of votes cast on the measure by individual legal voters shall be sufficient to enact any law or constitutional amendment proposed by initiative petition; a simple statewide majority of votes cast on the measure by individual legal voters shall be sufficient to reject any law upon which a referendum is ordered by referendum petition; signatures from five percent of the individual legal voters in each of two-thirds of Missouri's congressional districts shall be sufficient to propose a law; signatures from eight percent or the individual legal voters in each of two-thirds of Missouri's congressional districts shall be sufficient to propose a constitutional amendment; signatures from five percent of the individual legal voters in each of two-thirds of Missouri's congressional districts shall be sufficient to order a referendum; and the number of signatures required shall be calculated based on the total vote for governor at the general election last preceding the filing of any petition. Notwithstanding any other provision or law or of this Constitution to the contrary, any law or constitutional amendment referred to voters by petition shall be decided when approved or rejected by a majority of the votes cast thereon, and not otherwise.

Section 58. Sections 54, 55, 56, and 57 are self-executing and shall be construed to strongly protect the citizens' powers of initiative and referendum, all political power being vested in the people and rounded upon their will only.

Section 59. If any provision or Sections 54, 55, 56, 57, or 58, or the application thereof to anyone or to any circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of those provisions and the application or such provisions to others or other circumstances shall not be affected thereby.

CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT NO. 7

[Proposed by 103rd General Assembly (Second Regular Session) SS SCS SJR 95]

OFFICIAL BALLOT TITLE:

Shall the Missouri Constitution be amended to establish a permanent public endowment fund to support state government instead of taxing Missouri residents, prohibit the General Assembly from appropriating or diverting the fund, and eliminate state-imposed taxes once the fund generates sufficient revenue to replace them?

State and local governmental entities estimate no costs or savings.

Be it resolved by the Senate, the House of Representatives concurring therein:

That at the next general election to be held in the state of Missouri, on Tuesday next following the first Monday in November, 2026, or at a special election to be called by the governor for that purpose, there is hereby submitted to the qualified voters of this state, for adoption or rejection, the following amendment to article IV of the Constitution of the state of Missouri:

Section A. Article IV, Constitution of Missouri, is amended by adding thereto one new section, to be known as section 15(a), to read as follows:

Section 15(a). 1. There is hereby established within the state treasury a fund to be known as the “Show-Me Prosperity Fund”, which shall be established as a permanent public endowment to provide long-term fiscal stability with the goal of eliminating state-imposed taxes without impairing the real value of the fund’s principal. The fund shall consist of moneys appropriated to it by the general assembly, and may also receive gifts, donations, grants, and bequests from any source.

2. (1) The state treasurer shall invest the fund in exchange-traded funds tracking the stock performance of the Standard and Poor’s 500, or a comparable successor index to be determined by law, in a manner consistent with fiduciary standards applicable to public trust funds.

(2) No moneys shall be appropriated from the fund prior to notification given by the state treasurer to the general assembly that the net investment earnings for the fund during the previous fiscal year is sufficient to replace the revenue generated by all taxes enumerated in subdivision (3) of this subsection, provided that any such notification shall be approved by the general assembly through a concurrent resolution within the first sixty calendar days of the regular session immediately following the notification given by the state treasurer.

(3) Moneys appropriated from the fund shall be used solely to eliminate the following state-imposed taxes:

- (a) The individual income tax;
- (b) The state sales and use tax;
- (c) The state corporate income tax; and
- (d) All other state-imposed tax in an order of priority to be determined by law.

(4) The amount of moneys that may be appropriated from the fund in any fiscal year shall not exceed three percent of the average market value of the fund over the preceding five fiscal years. The provisions of this subdivision shall not be construed to prohibit the general assembly from appropriating less than three percent of the average market value of the fund in any fiscal year.

(5) Upon the elimination of the taxes enumerated in subdivision (3) of this subsection, no such tax shall thereafter be enacted, provided, however, that in the event the fund is unable to meet its obligations due to insolvency, revenue shortfall, or program failure, the general assembly shall retain full authority to appropriate funds from any lawful source and to enact legislation establishing or increasing taxes or other revenues as necessary to ensure continuity of state programs and fulfillment of state expenditures that were anticipated to be supported by the fund.

(6) Upon the elimination of all taxes enumerated in subdivision (3) of this subsection, the general assembly may appropriate net investment earnings from the fund for the purpose of replacing federal moneys received by the state, for issuing dividend payments to residents of the state, or both.

3. Notwithstanding any provision of this section to the contrary, the principal of the fund shall not be appropriated, pledged, or borrowed against. The state auditor shall conduct an audit of the fund to ensure compliance with the provisions of this section at such times that the auditor deems necessary, but no less than once every three fiscal years.

4. The balance and investment performance of the fund shall be made available and updated at least quarterly on an existing free, internet-based database created by law or executive order for the purpose of tracking state and local financial information.

5. For the purposes of this section, the following terms shall mean:

- (1) “Individual income tax”, the tax imposed on individuals, estates, and trusts, and the fiduciaries thereof;
- (2) “Net investment earnings”, all income, gains, and appreciation realized by the fund, net of investment management fees and expenses.

Section B. Pursuant to chapter 116, and other applicable constitutional provisions and laws of this state allowing the general assembly to adopt ballot language for the submission of this joint resolution to the voters of this state, the official summary statement of this resolution shall be as follows:
